

GP REGISTRAR PROGRESS REPORT
(To be completed by partners)

The purpose of these assessments is purely educational and intended to guide GP Registrars as to the direction in which they should develop and trainers as to what particular areas of training might receive special attention.

GP REGISTRAR

DATE

- A. Are there any problems in the following areas?
If YES, please elaborate
1. Basic factual knowledge
 2. Record keeping
 3. Problem identification and diagnosis
 4. Clinical management
 5. Emergency care
 6. Continuing responsibility
(including chronic illness)
 7. Involvement of patients and relatives in care
 8. Relationships with patients and relatives
(including bedside manner)
 9. Relationships with colleagues
(including team working)
 10. Professional and ethical values
(including courtesy, kindness etc)
 11. Self-education
(including critical reading)